IMI's 5th Annual Security Printing Conference
Final Agenda Announced

Carrabassett Valley, Maine - Information Management Institute, Inc. announces the final agenda for its 5th annual Security Printing Conference on November 17-19, 2008 at the Tremont Plaza Hotel, Baltimore, Maryland.

"Conference presenters from leading organizations and companies will provide the latest information on many new developments, applications and market opportunities," says IMI President Al Keene. "Presentations from Appleton, Applied DNA Sciences, ARmarkTM Authentication Technologies, Axess Technologies, FBI Laboratory, InkSure Technologies, International Anticounterfeiting Association, ITW Covid Security Group, JDSU, Polyonics, Schofield Imaging Associates, Sekuworks, SICPA, Technology Transfer Group, U.S. Immigration & Customs Enforcement Forensic Documents Laboratory, Xennia Technologies and Xerox will provide key insights into effective ways to utilize physical features and digital security printing to find cost effective methods to stay ahead of counterfeiting, tampering and forgery," says Keene.

Conference Chairman Harold Schofield of Schofield Imaging Associates says, "IMI's 5th Annual Security Printing Conference will address the challenges and opportunities in dealing with security issues and enabling brand protection for products and production of secure documents for a wide variety of applications including business documents, ID's, currency, gaming/event tickets, travel documents, etc. Industry experts will address digital printing technologies' capabilities and shortcomings relative to printing secure output and the technology options available to enhance the production of secure documents and products of all types. The conference program will provide a critical assessment of forensic analysis requirements, enhanced ink and media systems, document traceability technologies, software solutions and other potential avenues to enhance product and document security."

The conference agenda, downloadable brochure and on-line registration are now available on IMI's web site www.imiconf.com
